Email Selected

The email dialog field appears. I recommend you cc yourself and if you are wanting a response always include your email in the body of the message.

The screenshot shows an email composition interface. It includes the following fields and elements:

- From Name: An empty text input field.
- From Email Address: An empty text input field with a cursor.
- CC Email: An empty text input field.
- Subject: A text input field containing "Team Email -".
- Attachment: A button with the text "File name with letters and numbers only and no space" and an empty text input field below it.
- Body: A large text area with a rich text editor toolbar above it. The toolbar includes icons for undo, redo, bold, italic, underline, bulleted list, numbered list, link, unlink, font color, background color, font face, font size, and text color. Below the toolbar are tabs for "Normal", "HTML", and "Preview".
- Footer: A status bar showing "Words:0 Characters:0" and buttons for "<< Back" and "Send".

If you prefer not to use the Affinity system to communicate you can build your own distribution list from the “Print Team Roster/Email” roster option [red arrow].

To print your official team roster use the Print Team Roster option [green arrow].
